If it ain't broke, don't break it. Oregon has one of the most flexible, most equitable, and most effective voting systems in the country. Voting at home with ample time to study the issues means a much better informed electorate. Requiring time away from home and work, discriminates against those who have mobility issues, who have childcare issues, who have jobs that don't compensate them for their voting time. Let's not impose hardships that are absolutely unnecessary, and detrimental to the exercise of our voting rights. Let's not throw up needless obstacles to voting. Thank you.
