I am in opposition to SB210.

Having lived in many of the western states I have had the privilege of voting both in person and by mail. Voting by mail is far superior since often I don't know what I will encounter on a ballot until I look at it. This means that it's difficult to be informed in advance which makes in-person voting little more than selecting for an R or a D.

Mail in ballots allow me to agonize over my choices, and research them carefully before making my selection. It also allows me to discuss with my peers and people I respect about their choices and collaborate research -- this is especially helpful for selecting judges.

Requiring in-person voting is merely a form of voter suppression. We have a democracy if we can keep it. Oppose this bill.
