Vote by mail has been a godsend for Oregon residents. For citizens who might have trouble waiting in line due to age, illness or disabilities, or for those who lack transportation, it provides a convenience that creates inclusivity. I don't want legal voting to be more difficult for Oregon citizens. Many of us live in rural areas miles from voting booths. As long as the US Postal Service does not become privatized, I think Vote By Mail is the most efficient and fair way to vote.
