

Submitter:

Sean Winter

On Behalf Of:

Committee:

Senate Committee On Rules

Measure, Appointment or Topic:

SB210

As someone who values the integrity of our elections, I endorse in-person voting on Election Day as the standard. It's a reliable, secure method that brings people together to exercise their rights in real time. This approach reduces complexity, limits opportunities for errors or fraud, and reinforces the shared commitment to democracy we all hold dear.