

Submitter:

Kim Fiddler

On Behalf Of:

Committee:

Senate Committee On Rules

Measure, Appointment or Topic:

SB210

Making this the default way to participate in elections will disproportionately affect low income and low socioeconomic populations. Those are the same populations that are most affected by ballot measures. Mail in voting needs to remain the standard as it will ensure everyone has an equal chance to participate in elections.