

Submitter: Joseph Pierce

On Behalf Of:

Committee: Senate Committee On Rules

Measure, Appointment or Topic: SB210

Taking away mail-in voting is the wrong thing to do. Many people simply cannot get away to spend hours in line to vote. On top of that, the weather doesn't always cooperate here in Oregon, and recent years have brought both extreme heat and extreme cold, which can be deadly for certain people.