

Submitter: Ted Thayer

On Behalf Of:

Committee: Senate Committee On Rules

Measure, Appointment or Topic: SB210

In person voting on the day of the election is an inefficient and antiquated idea and would make voting more difficult for everyone. Our current system works don't change it.