

Submitter:

Heather Simpson

On Behalf Of:

Committee:

Senate Committee On Rules

Measure, Appointment or Topic:

SB210

My deceased father in law has received a ballot for the past several elections, the elections aren't secure and anyone could easily have forged his name and stole his vote.

In person voting is the best way to ensure each election gets one ballot from one person. Those who are against this want to cheat, plain and simple.