I LOVE voting by mail. It is so much easier to study the issues in the comfort of my home and fill in the ballot that way.

I resent people who are trying to restrict voting by passing laws like this, whose only purpose is to discourage voting. That's a form of election fraud.

There is no valid reason to reduce options for people to vote. If anything laws should be passed to make it easier, not harder, to vote.

I'm shocked that this type of bill is being given consideration in the Oregon legislature. I imagine it was written and lobbied for, by out of state PACs and special interest groups, who want to co-opt the democracy. And probably every state in the nation has a similar bill being pushed by the right wing monied interests who are paying whatever it costs to get this through nationwide.

Why is the legislature even considering reducing people's ability to vote?

My 34 year old son is blind and it will be much more difficult for him to vote if forced to vote at a voting site rather than by mail.
