You gotta be kidding me.

Look, anyone who is trying to make it harder to vote is scared of losing. Full stop, period, end of line.

Either win fairly or change your platform to something that makes sense.

We've had mail in voting here since before the last time this state voted for Republicans. High turnout, good voter engagement, system is actually working well.

Only politicians who are weak cowards like a baby dog would come up with this inane idea, bring it to this legislature, and say "Sir, we're tired of having fair voting, can we rig this so we have a chance?"

Nope. Try bipartisanship and maybe agreeing on something everyone wants like Healthcare or fair taxes or cheap eggs instead of lying, cheating, and stealing. Grow up and gtfo.

Do NOT support the murder of mail-in voting.
