

I am firmly against taking away the option to vote by mail. Making us vote in person takes away so many voters that may not have the time or availability to make it to the polls on Election Day.