There is no reason to make voting harder unless you want to make it harder for people to vote.

None of these guys who cry about mail in voting systems at most, point to stuff that is “weird” but ultimately, never any actual irregularities. No elections have been swayed by voter fraud.

Elections have been swayed by Republicans messing with how people vote. See North Carolina’s state legislature congressional map being slapped down for targeting black people with “surgical precision” (search term there). Or when Republicans changed what type of addresses are allowed on IDs, see the PO Box address requirement changes the North Dakota Republicans implemented in September of 2018.

Republican congressional reps do not want to be held accountable by all voters. Only the select few they care about. Why? What are they doing? Probably bad stuff to kids.
