I oppose ending mail in voting. Mail in voting allows more time to study the ballot and make sure everything is understood. This is critical in today's world where the media is no longer a reliable source of information. The erasure of truth in our country with the falling away of our nation's faith in God, The author of the only truth that exists today. With the Republican agenda of ending everything this country used to stand for, running a convicted felon for president and supporting Musk buying votes in Wisconsin, I see this as another attempt by Republicans to restrict freedom. Mail in voting has worked perfectly fine for decades.
