SB210

I am writing to express my strong opposition to any attempt to remove mail-in voting in Oregon.

The evidence shows that voting by mail ensures that more people make their voices heard in our elections. It allows us to research the issues from the comfort of home, and take our time filling out a ballot. It allows us to vote when we have time, without the worries of getting time off work, finding childcare, or standing in line. And our state has long supported accessible, secure elections.

SB 210 is not about election integrity. It is a blatant attempt to suppress votes and serve an authoritarian agenda.

Vote NO on this bill.
