I was thrilled when mail in voting was enacted.

At the time I worked odd jobs and hours.

Never being able to schedule time just to wait in line in that church basement near me.

Years later I still love & appreciate the flexibility this mail in system provides.

The actions of some , burning up ballot boxes seems a trade off for people protesting polling sites. Or worse , violence at these locations.

My elderly neighbors & family members are also with me on keeping this mail in ballot system.
