I have voted by mail for every election since I was 18. I'm an active voter and yet I do not believe I would have voted in every election if I had to vote in person. From job responsibilities, traveling, pregnancy and caring for children the challenge of arriving at a location on a specific day would be roadblocks for me and many others.

Alternatively, I get to vote on my own time which allows me to show up and vote and be an active citizen.
