SB210

I am writing to express my strong opposition to Bill SB210. It is clearly meant to restrict access to voting and roll back the voting rights of Oregonians. Making Oregonians vote in-person on election day and with strict identification requirements would prevent innumerable Oregonians from casting a vote, particularly impacting those in marginalized communities with limited job flexibility and/or transportation. Oregon's shift to voting by mail has resulted in drastically increased participation in voting, and overall engagement in this critical civic duty.
