

I am vehemently opposed to repealing vote by mail. First, it's an Oregon institution— and for good reason. The ability to research and evaluate candidates and measures in the comfort of one's home is a testament to democracy. Repealing it would be a disaster of the highest measure.