

Submitter:

Glen Post

On Behalf Of:

Committee:

Senate Committee On Rules

Measure, Appointment or Topic:

SB210

After years of successful mail in elections, it is silly to even consider repeal of the Vote By Mail system that Oregon has in place. We have excellent turnout numbers, ease of voting for all citizens (handicaped, elderly and all voters). Oregon has long been considered the example of mail in votings success and we should not change the system to placate a group of people who claim voter fraud without evidence,