SB210

I am writing to oppose SB210. Forcing in-person voting will disenfranchise Oregon voters, particularly in rural areas, and will make voting more difficult for working people. As a working parent, forced in-person voting would be disruptive for my employer, for me, and will no doubt be time and labor intensive for everyone involved. Vote by mail is secure, convenient, and allows for thoughtful consideration of the issue, and there is no reason to change what works well. Please vote no on SB210 to preserve vote-by-mail for Oregonians.
