I absolutely oppose making in-person voting the standard. Our mail in voting system is incredible. We have some of the highest voter turnouts in the country due to the mail in system. Moving to in person voting is a step in the wrong direction, and will disenfranchise many voters who do not have the time to take off from work to vote. Why is a piece of legislation this stupid even being proposed? Anyone who supports this will not get my vote, and I will convince everyone in my circles to respond in the same way. This cannot pass.
