

Submitter:

Riley Sickler

On Behalf Of:

Committee:

Senate Committee On Rules

Measure, Appointment or Topic:

SB210

Oregon has had mail in ballots for a reason. In person elections are long, tiring and long inefficient throughout the United States. The fact that we don't have a federal holiday for Election Day says a lot about people's trust in the electoral process. We cannot have any further disruption in democracy than we already have in the federal government much less state government.