

Submitter:

Sarah Peters

On Behalf Of:

Committee:

Senate Committee On Rules

Measure, Appointment or Topic:

SB210

Oregon has a long history of secure mail-in voting and one of our nation's highest voter participation rates. Replacing it with in-person voting would just add more costs to our already cash-strapped counties while making it harder for Oregonians to vote. Why pay more to get worse results? I strongly urge the committee to vote against advancing this bill further.