

Submitter:

Michael Irving-Bartley

On Behalf Of:

Committee:

Senate Committee On Rules

Measure, Appointment or Topic:

SB210

To uphold Trump's executive order on election integrity is a step backwards for states rights. Our founding fathers made it abundantly clear that the separation between the federal government and state government served a purpose. I believe a part of their intention was to prevent an autocratic rule over our democracy.