

Submitter:

Hayley Weber

On Behalf Of:

Committee:

Senate Committee On Rules

Measure, Appointment or Topic:

SB210

Voting by mail is a modern, proven way to vote with no downsides. It's accessible and democratic. Going to the polls results in lower voter turnout, targeting those that are disabled or from lower income households especially.