SB210

It is with sadness and frankly shock that it's necessary that I submit my vehement, unequivocal opposition to this Bill. I'd call it a thinly-veiled attempt at voter suppression, but it's not actually veiled at all: this is a transparent attempt to keep the poor, the working class, married women, and countless others from voting. I have always been proud of Oregon's accessible voting, which is a foundational component of any democracy. There is no legitimate reason to limit mail in voting, though I suppose if you only want landowning white men to vote, this bill would certainly get us many steps closer. This is simply complying in advance with the unlawful executive orders coming from the authoritarian Trump regime and the Project 2025 plan. The Representative bringing it forth should be ashamed; as someone who swore to uphold the Constitution, his actions are antithetical to the government by the people envisioned by that document.
