

Submitter:

Brian Finn

On Behalf Of:

Committee:

Senate Committee On Rules

Measure, Appointment or Topic:

SB210

Voting by mail is faster, cheaper and more accessible to the general population than in person voting. I have personally voted under both systems and I can not image what kind of person believes that in person voting is a better option.