

Submitter:

Andreas Schmitt

On Behalf Of:

Committee:

Senate Committee On Rules

Measure, Appointment or Topic:

SB210

Eliminating mail in voting would be a huge mistake. We have decades of evidence that it works well and increases voter turnout. Repealing this would be undemocratic and only serves to make voting more challenging. Voting should be open to all citizens and as inclusive as possible.