SB210

I strongly oppose this measure. It will have the effect of reducing voter turnout. I voted in every Oregon election in which I have been eligible to vote because I was able to use mail-in. It would be impossible for me to maintain this record if in-person voting was required. Frankly, this bill is a "conservative" shibboleth that should have no place in our state. ("Conservative" is in quotes because today's Republican party has no relation to the party of past years, who might have legitimately been called conservative. Ronald Reagan and his contemporaries are spinning in their graves.)
