

Submitter:

Camillia Thompson

On Behalf Of:

Committee:

Senate Committee On Rules

Measure, Appointment or Topic:

SB210

Oregon's vote by mail system has been a huge success and has an extremely low rate of fraud. Repealing vote by mail is a blatant effort to make it more difficult for people to vote. Interesting how one particular party can't seem to win based on their "values" and platform, so their answer to this is to throw up roadblocks to keep people from voting at all.