

Submitter:

Caroline Brown

On Behalf Of:

Committee:

Senate Committee On Rules

Measure, Appointment or Topic:

SB210

Voting by mail has been scrutinized extensively, and works well. Our population is aging and more and more people are finding it difficult to get around. There simply isn't enough money to have adequate convenient voting sites, and finding poll workers is becoming more difficult between the aging population and workers' fears of violence.