

Submitter: Owen Cheney

On Behalf Of:

Committee: Senate Committee On Rules

Measure, Appointment or Topic: SB210

I've lived in states where in person voting is the norm, and it sucks. Having to take time off work to wait in line and vote in person is inconvenient at best, and logistically impossible for many.

As an American citizen who loves democracy, I firmly believe we should be seeking to increase the number of voters, not decrease it.