

Submitter:

George Hanlin

On Behalf Of:

Committee:

Senate Committee On Rules

Measure, Appointment or Topic:

SB210

There is ample data that supports mail in voting as an accessible, secure, and relatively simple way to vote.

The only reason to want to limit mail in voting, or the USPS's ability to deliver those ballots, is voter suppression. It's shameful.