I appreciate the ease of voting by mail, and the ability to research candidates and policy while filling out my ballot. I lived in a state that primarily ran elections with in-person voting, and I appreciate not standing outside in a long line for a few hours to make my impact on our Democracy. In 2014, my unit (veteran here) flew millions of ballots over the Hindu Kush mountains to allow the Northern Afghani people cast their votes. I approve maximum accessibility for all American voters.
