

Submitter:

Reid Ligon

On Behalf Of:

Committee:

Senate Committee On Rules

Measure, Appointment or Topic:

SB210

Oregon has a fantastic voter participation rate under the existing system. There is absolutely no credible evidence of any significant voter fraud. There is no reason to go back to the in-person voting, which will likely cut the participation tremendously, and greatly increase the cost and inconvenience of elections.