

Submitter:

Rachel Henney

On Behalf Of:

Committee:

Senate Committee On Rules

Measure, Appointment or Topic:

SB210

I think it is important to continue to allow Mail-in ballot options to support people whom are unable to make it to voting polls. Saying the only way to vote is to be in person feels like we may reduce the accuracy of public opinion by shrinking our voters overall. It would be better to focus efforts on ensuring accuracy and legitimacy of votes/voters.