

Submitter: Corey Fry

On Behalf Of:

Committee: Senate Committee On Rules

Measure, Appointment or Topic: SB210

The United States does not have a significant problem with voter fraud. It does have a problem with low voter turnout. This measure does not fix a real problem and is intended to lower voter participation, particularly for people who are unable to vote in person.

It's insulting to us citizens to have elected officials pretend that this is solving a problem and that we're too stupid to realize what you're trying to do.