I oppose this bill to eliminate mail-in voting for Oregonians. Mail-in voting is exceedingly secure in every state that uses it--and certainly in Oregon, thanks to the hard work of our election officials. And crucially, it makes voting trivially easy and convenient, removing the countless barriers that prevent voters from making it to in-person polls every election. It's an amazing way to preserve our democracy and ensure every voter gets a say. Every Oregonian I know is proud to live in a state that offers mail-in voting, and we will be horrified if our legislators eliminate it.
