

Submitter: adam gleeson-prata

On Behalf Of:

Committee: Senate Committee On Rules

Measure, Appointment or Topic: SB210

Limiting voting to in-person limits many people's ability to vote at all. Disabilities, schedules, etc can prevent a person from being eligible to cast their vote if limited to a single date. Mail-in voting saves money, time, resources as well as ensuring the most people can participate in the process of a fair and balanced democratic election.