

Submitter:

Phillip Gelfand

On Behalf Of:

Committee:

Senate Committee On Rules

Measure, Appointment or Topic:

SB210

Universal Vote by mail has worked well in Oregon for a long time. Changing to an in-person voting infrastructure would be needlessly expensive, unnecessarily chaotic, and opens up potential vectors of attack that can be exploited for technical and/or political abuse.