Hi, thank you for the opportunity to comment.

Oregon's vote by mail system is wonderful—it gives me the time to research my choices carefully and take the time I respectfully believe a ballot deserves. It is part of what makes Oregon such an incredible state. The choice to take this away is nothing short of a form of voter suppression, and is based off of claims (of voter fraud) that have been unfounded. Mail-in voting is a matter of accessibility. It is gravely important we preserve the ability for Oregon voters to take their time researching their vote, and allow them to return their vote in a way that is safe, convenient, and not threatening to people's livelihoods (through missing work to vote) or health (standing in long lines, etc.)
