SB210

When I was a new voter, I loved the act of going to the polls. My local was in a church basement and was staffed by a flock of older ladies who would offer you cookies and coffee if you had to wait.

But now, as an older voter with limited time and more responsibilities, the ability to sit at my kitchen table and review the Voter's Pamphlet and vote from there is much more appealing. Please leave vote-by-mail alone.
