SB210

I am disappointed and saddened, but not surprised, that this bill is being proposed by Oregon republicans. It reeks of continued desperation from a party that thinks they somehow deserve to govern, or even have a seat at the table with the grown-ups, when they cannot offer policies that are supported by voters in the state they represent. Vote by mail works. The proof that it works is that a party that continues to align itself with regressive policies that only appeal to the perpetually aggrieved in order to continue distilling wealth for the already wealthy, want to make it harder, not easier to vote. Republicans, I urge you, find your way back to decency, democracy and public service. You are greasing the skids for your own continuing slide into irrelevancy with your dogged commitment to oligarchic minority rule. You should be ashamed of this, but it's clear you have no shame left.
