Mail-in voting is safe, effective, and convenient. In-person voting will restrict voting access to thousands of people in the state, and will only allow for more corruption. Access to mail-in voting allows for all people - especially people without the means to make it to a physical voting location - the ability to vote. Removing mail-in voting will only ensure that people with the means of transportation and time will be able to vote in elections. I am in opposition of changing the law.
