It makes sense that Sen David Brock Smith would sponsor a bill meant to suppress voter turnout, as he was never elected to the senate but appointed. He's also a conspiracy theorist and election denier. Oregon's vote-by-mail is the envy of the US, and a reason the state sees better voter turnout than most of the country. It's an absurd, anti-democratic proposition, which is typical for the GOP. They know they're wildly unpopular in Oregon, and want to make sure as few people vote as possible.

last year my dad has his left foot amputated. I want to know why Sen Smith wants my amputee father to stand in a line to vote when he can safely, legally mail his ballot in as he has for the last 25 years.
