

Submitter:

Debora Stout

On Behalf Of:

Committee:

Senate Committee On Rules

Measure, Appointment or Topic:

SB210

Voting by mail is safe and it is efficient. It has been an at least partially successful strategy to attempt to mitigate inequality in access to this democratic right caused by variables that include: income disparity, shift work and rural residence. The only apparent reasons to change this system is to make it more difficult for already disenfranchised populations to vote. This is racism and classism - very poorly disguised.