I am writing to express my strong opposition to any attempt to remove mail-in voting in Oregon. Please protect our right to vote by mail. Oregon often has some of the highest voter turnouts in the country and that is a direct result of the ease of vote by mail. Our state has long supported accessible, secure elections, ensuring that every eligible voter has the opportunity to participate. Mail-in voting works. It increases voter turnout, builds trust in our election system, and saves the state and counties money.
