

Submitter:

Christopher Done

On Behalf Of:

Committee:

Senate Committee On Rules

Measure, Appointment or Topic:

SB210

In person voting skews election results in favor of those with the time and ability to access polling locations on designated election days. Removing or reducing the availability of mail in ballots will result in lower voter turn out and fewer people being able to participate in elections.