

Submitter: Christina Chang

On Behalf Of:

Committee: Senate Committee On Rules

Measure, Appointment or Topic: SB210

There's no evidence of how mail-in ballots increase voter fraud, but there is evidence of how mail-in ballots increase voting participation. Continuing to support mail-in ballots upholds our right to vote. This is especially crucial for those who cannot take time off to vote on the day of elections.