

Submitter: Zachary Stroh

On Behalf Of:

Committee: Senate Committee On Rules

Measure, Appointment or Topic: SB210

This proposal is regressive, and has the goal of reducing voter turnout in order to try to gain a partisan edge. Mail voting has been proven to be safe, reduces the workload on election staff, and lowers the barrier to allow the most people possible to have their say. Reference: <https://bipartisanpolicy.org/report/mail-voting-is-safe-secure/>.